

Change at Steinmüller Engineering GmbH

f.l. Tetsuya Iwasaki, Shinichi Takano, Dr. Hans Ulrich Thierbach

Shinichi Takano new Managing Director

On 1. April, Shinichi Takano (47) took over the position of managing director of Steinmüller Engineering GmbH in Gummersbach and is thus directing the company together with Dr. Hans-Ulrich Thierbach. Mr. Takano follows on Mr. Iwasaki, who has supported the successful development of the business since 2014.

With Shinichi Takano an excellent expert in conventional power plant technology has been selected for the top management of the Steinmüller-Engineering GmbH in Gummersbach. He will actively support the positive development of the Company.

Mr. Takano can rely on more than 20 years of experience in power plant engineering. He began his career as an engineer at IHI in Tokyo. Later on he has been active as a manager of various power plant engineering departments and lastly General Manager for operation before he moved to the top of Steinmüller Engineering, Gummersbach.
